

Your Accident Story QUESTIONS

---

Thank you for sharing your story with Enjuris™ readers!

We want to help you document this life-changing event in the form of a blog post on Enjuris.com. The hope is that the page becomes something you are proud of and can share with friends and family - and beyond!

You can use the following questions to help guide what you write, but please shape your story how you wish – feel free to omit some questions, add your own, and so on. If you would prefer, one of our editors can interview you and write this for you!

Please provide some background on your life at the time of the accident.

How old were you?

Were you working or in school? Where did you live?

Tell us about your accident. What happened?

What did you do immediately after?

Did you go to the hospital right away?

Did you have any injuries? Were they long-term?

What type of medical treatment or rehab did you have to go through?

How have your injuries changed your life?

Are there activities that you have had to give up?

Has your thinking changed in any way?

An accident can be traumatizing emotionally. Would you tell our readers about any emotional effects you've experienced?

Did you have medical bills to deal with after the accident?

What resources were helpful for you financially?

Did you have an insurance claim or lawsuit as a result of your accident?

Were there any challenges with this? How long did it take til resolution? Can you share any more details?

Was your work or career impacted? Please explain.

What message would you want others to take away from your story?

Additional items: Do you have any photos you can share (before/after or current photos of yourself, the accident scene, etc.)?

Please provide a brief description of any photos, including names of people in the photo, the location and year, etc.

Please provide links to any social media accounts where we could tag you when we share your story, if you wish.

Note: Our editors may wish to contact you if there are any further questions. Your contact information will not be published.

Please include your Name, City, State, Email address and Phone Number.

Please send this information and any photos to editor@enjuris.com. You can use a Word document, a Google Doc or even just toss it into an email. Understand that by submitting this to us, you are giving us consent to publish the information and photos you provide to us, as outlined in our terms and conditions and privacy policy.

Once we receive this information from you, we will set up a web page using the answers you have provided. We will show you the page so you will have a chance to request any edits before we share the page with our readers. We want the end result to be something you are proud to share with friends and family, and others who can learn or gain encouragement from your story.

Thank you,
The Enjuris editors
